GOSPEL Luke 24:35-48

The two disciples recounted what had taken place on the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread. While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost. Then he said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have." And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them.

He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

RCIA Session #30

Encounters with Angels Presenter: Dr Joey Spencer

In our first RCIA Mystagogy session, we welcome back Joey Spencer to give us a talk on a subject he is passionate about: Angels. The Catechism of the Catholic Church tells us that angels are spiritual creatures who glorify God without ceasing and who serve his saving plans for other creatures (CCC, 350). According to St. Thomas Aquinas: "The angels work together for the benefit of us all". The Church venerates the angels for helping her on this earthly pilgrimage and for protecting every human being. Amazing! Come discover why!

Basic decade prayers for the Divine Mercy chaplet, which may be prayed on regular rosary beads. The Divine Mercy group usually meets at St. John Church on Wednesdays at 10am, and have an open invitation to join them. They will be happy to explain more about the devotion and how to pray the chaplet. (Adapted from the US Catholic Bishops' website, which has more prayers: www.usccb.org/prayers/chaplet-divine-mercy)

On the bigger "Our Father" bead: Eternal Father, I offer you the Body and Blood, soul and divinity of your dearly beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, in atonement for our sins and those of the whole world.

On the smaller "Hail Mary" beads: For the sake of his sorrowful Passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.

After all five decades, recite three times: Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.
