GOSPEL: St. Matthew 2:1-12
When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, “Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.” When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They said to him, “In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet: And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel.” Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star’s appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, “Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage.” After their audience with the king they set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

SPIRITUAL READING BOOK CLUB
Catholic Community of Bartlesville
The Spiritual Book Club's January book is "The Miracle of Father KAPAUN, Priest, Soldier and Korean War Hero" by Roy Wenzl and Travis Heying. A short but powerful story of a Kansas priest who found his hero in the Biblical Jesus who walked with and healed ordinary men. Kapaun became an army chaplain who not only walked with the men, but carried the wounded who would be shot if they did not keep up. The book shares amazing stories of miracles attributed to his intercession. An uplifting account of a 20th century man's choice to share Jesus' love even in the midst of war. Please join us, Tuesday, 1:30, January 10, Conference Room 2, St. John's. Please contact Pat Netzer. at 918-337-2118 if you have any questions.

 RCIA Session #16
Sacrament of Initiation: Confirmation
Presenter: Deacon Jerry
St. James Catholic Church Confirmation is empowering. When anyone receives the sacrament of Confirmation, the adventure of grace begun in Baptism is carried forward. Those who have been called receive the full out-pouring of the Holy Spirit that increases and deepens baptismal grace needed to fulfill their particular Christian vocations. As St. Paul reminds the Ephesians to whom God imparted the Holy Spirit by his hands, God's "power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine" (Eph. 3:20).
