GOSPEL: Luke 17:11-19
 As Jesus continued his journey to Jerusalem, he traveled through Samaria and Galilee. As he was entering a village, ten lepers met him. They stood at a distance from him and raised their voices, saying, “Jesus, Master! Have pity on us!” And when he saw them, he said, “Go show yourselves to the priests.” As they were going they were cleansed. And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him. He was a Samaritan. Jesus said in reply, “Ten were cleansed, were they not? Where are the other nine? Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?” Then he said to him, “Stand up and go; your faith has saved you.”

RCIA
Inquirers Session #5:
"Am I Saved?"
Presenter: Fr. John
 What Jesus did for us through his life, death, and resurrection was the greatest act of love in history. He saved us. He did this for each one of us. Personally. We may feel unworthy of this gift. We may feel unlovable; like we have too much baggage. God came to enter into our messy human condition, to fix us from within. We don't deserve God's love, but that's the amazing reality of God's mercy. This relationship with God isn't all about our love for him. It's about His love for us that changes our lives forever.
Join us! Tuesday, October 11 at 7pm at St. James Catholic Church
