GOSPEL: St. Luke 13:1-3, 11-32
Tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to listen to Jesus, but the Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, “This man welcomes sinners and eats with them.” So to them Jesus addressed this parable: “A man had two sons, and the younger son said to his father, ‘Father give me the share of your estate that should come to me.’ So the father divided the property between them. After a few days, the younger son collected all his belongings and set off to a distant country where he squandered his inheritance on a life of dissipation. When he had freely spent everything, a severe famine struck that country, and he found himself in dire need. So he hired himself out to one of the local citizens who sent him to his farm to tend the swine. And he longed to eat his fill of the pods on which the swine fed, but nobody gave him any. Coming to his senses he thought, ‘How many of my father’s hired workers have more than enough food to eat, but here am I, dying from hunger. I shall get up and go to my father and I shall say to him, “Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I no longer deserve to be called your son; treat me as you would treat one of your hired workers.”’ So he got up and went back to his father. While he was still a long way off, his father caught sight of him, and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him. His son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I no longer deserve to be called your son.’ But his father ordered his servants, ‘Quickly bring the finest robe and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. Take the fattened calf and slaughter it. Then let us celebrate with a feast, because this son of mine was dead, and has come to life again; he was lost, and has been found.’ Then the celebration began. Now the older son had been out in the field and, on his way back, as he neared the house, he heard the sound of music and dancing. He called one of the servants and asked what this might mean. The servant said to him, ‘Your brother has returned and your father has slaughtered the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.’ He became angry, and when he refused to enter the house, his father came out and pleaded with him. He said to his father in reply, ‘Look, all these years I served you and not once did I disobey your orders; yet you never gave me even a young goat to feast on with my friends. But when your son returns who swallowed up your property with prostitutes, for him you slaughter the fattened calf.’ He said to him, ‘My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours. But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found.’”

NOTE FROM THE PASTOR: As she is stepping down from her position, I want to publicly thank Cassie Rebeor for her service to the Catholic Community of Bartlesville. Besides being Director of Youth for the Community, she was also responsible for Confirmation, Totus Tuus, and assisted at St. John School with the Yearbook, Debate, and occasionally as a substitute teacher. I ask for your continued prayers for Cassie as she opens a new chapter in her life. She has built good teams for support and the ongoing service to our young people. As always, God will continue to be with her and us to guide us in the weeks and months ahead. In humble gratitude, Fr. John

RCIA - The Period of Purification & Enlightenment
Presenter: Fr. John
“The water that I shall give will turn into a spring of eternal life...”
As we enter the twenty-seventh week of the RCIA journey, we will take a closer look at where the journey has taken us, and reflect on how this Lenten season continues to give us all time for spiritual recollection in preparation for the celebration of the Paschal mystery. The elect we have embraced as a community, continue their process of purifying and enlightening their minds and hearts with a deeper knowledge of Christ the Savior. Fr. John will illuminate the path we’re all on and answer questions as we travel towards the Passion of Holy Week and the glory of Easter Vigil together.
Join us! Tuesday, March 29th at 7pm in Fr. Lynch Hall
