GOSPEL: St. John 20:19-31

On the evening of the first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Now, Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

SAVE THE DATE, MAY 20th! St. John Before the Latin Gate's Spring Retreat "UNITED MISSION" will be conducted by Deacon David Hamel from Catholic Charities.

DIVINE MERCY Celebrate the Feast of Mercy! Today is the Feast of Mercy, the day the Lord promises great graces for those who turn to Him with trust for mercy, forgiveness, healing, and restoration. Jesus told St. Faustina: "My daughter, tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the Fount of My Mercy." "The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment." The requirement will be fulfilled if you receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation in preparation for the feast day, as long as you receive Communion on the feast day or its vigil in a state of grace and with great trust in Divine Mercy. Visit TheDivineMercy.org/celebrate to learn more.

RCIA continues after Easter for continued encouragement in the spiritual journey.

We WILL NOT meet as a class this Tuesday.

Our next scheduled class meeting is

Tuesday, April 25, 7pm, at St. James Church.
