GOSPEL: Luke 18:9-14
Jesus addressed this parable to those who were convinced of their own righteousness and despised everyone else. "Two people went up to the temple area to pray; one was a Pharisee and the other was a tax collector. The Pharisee took up his position and spoke this prayer to himself, 'O God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity--greedy, dishonest, adulterous-- or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week, and I pay tithes on my whole income.' But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.' I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former; for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

RCIA
Inquirers Session #7:
"Mary and the Saints?"
Presenter: Fr. Carlos

Catholics honor Mary and the saints as models to imitate and we give glory to God for the great work they accomplished in their lives. Mary is the spiritual mother for all Christians. Because of her complete cooperation with Jesus' redemptive work, she continually intercedes on our behalf before her Son. Catholics don't worship Mary and the saints like we worship God, but we honor them as models we can imitate, and we recognize the great work God has accomplished in their lives. Just as Christian communion draws us closer to Christ, so does our communion with Mary and the saints join us closer to Jesus.

Join us! Tuesday, October 25 at 7pm
at St. James Catholic Church

Contact Kim Barbour, RCIA coordinator at 952-270-4665 or rcia@stjohnbartlesville.org

REFLECTION FOR ADVENT AT ST. GREGORY’S ABBEY:
Advent is the season encompassing the four Sundays (and week-days) leading up to the celebration of Christmas. In the season of Advent, we await the coming of Christ on all the levels in which we experience time: in the past -as a babe in the stable of Bethlehem; in the present-as grace in our souls; and in the future-as the Judge at the end of time. This day of reflection on November 12, will focus on these three actions of Christ's coming into our world and into our hearts and how we might use this time of preparation to deepen our awareness of them. Fr. Boniface Copelin, OSB will be the presenter. Preregistration is required, (405) 878-5656 or email retreats@monksok.org. Cost is $30 (if prepaid) or $35 at the door. Lunch is included. The day begins with Mass at 8:30am in the Abbey church and ends after adoration around 3pm. St. Gregory's Abbey is located at 1900 W. MacArthur Street in Shawnee, Oklahoma.
