Gospel: Luke 5:1-11

While the crowd was pressing in on Jesus and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret. He saw two boats there alongside the lake; the fishermen had disembarked and were washing their nets. Getting into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, he asked him to put out a short distance from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. After he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch." Simon said in reply, "Master, we have worked hard all night and have caught nothing, but at your command I will lower the nets." When they had done this, they caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them. They came and filled both boats so that the boats were in danger of sinking. When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at the knees of Jesus and said, "Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man." For astonishment at the catch of fish they had made seized him and all those with him, and likewise James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners of Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men." When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him.

"A Catholic Moral Vision"
Session 22 with Fr. Carvajal
Tuesday, February 11, 6:30pm at St. James

Everyone struggles to live fully in accord with what they believe to be true. We all have our aspirations and our ideals, the code we live by, and there are days when we all fail. It is the Catholic view that each of us is called to learn from our mistakes and to seek to integrate certain life principles that will inform how we relate to ourselves, other people, and the world in which we live. If Catholic spirituality is primarily focused on our relationship with God, Catholic moral teaching is primarily focused on our relationship with others. It is God's desire that we live life to the full, in peace and freedom (John 10:10). Fr. Carvajal will show that to live an authentic moral life, a Catholic looks to both faith and reason. Come and See!

For more information, Contact Kim Barbour at 952-270-4665 or email becomingcatholicbartlesville@gmail.com.

ST. ZELIE APOSTOLATE TO EXPECTING MOTHERS

Congratulations! If you are expecting a baby, please allow us to serve you and the new life you are bringing into the world. Simply scan the QR code, on the left, and fill out the form so we help support you (meals, diaper shower, prayers and more). The second QR code, on the right, is a baby registry link for Catholic Moms of Bartlesville where parishioners can gift diapers and wipes online as well as monetary donations. If you have any questions please contact Jasmine Odell at jasmine.odell00@gmail.com.

The Diocese of Tulsa and Eastern Oklahoma is preparing for the 2025 Faith & Works Annual appeal. This year, for the 2025 Faith & Works Annual appeal, we are being reminded of the Great Commission: Go Make Disciples of all nations. In James 2:18 we are told that faith without works is dead. If faith without works is dead, then faith with works must be alive. Let us live out faith in our daily living, thereby growing and nurturing not only our own faith, but the faith of others, through works of mercy and acts of kindness, building the Kingdom of God. This year the Appeal will be held the weekend of March 1st & 2nd. Please be as generous as you can.
