GOSPEL: St. Matthew 17:1-9

Jesus took Peter, James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with him. Then Peter said to Jesus in reply, "Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud cast a shadow over them, then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." When the disciples heard this, they fell prostrate and were very much afraid. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Rise, and do not be afraid." And when the disciples raised their eyes, they saw no one else but Jesus alone.

As they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, "Do not tell the vision to anyone until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

FAITH & WORKS is the annual appeal of our Tulsa Diocese for programs throughout the Diocese to help our fellow Catholics. Some of the programs that benefit from our generosity to this fund are rural parish outreach, Faith Formation Conference, Sing Praise events, Alcuin Institute for Catholic Culture, a full-time Director of Child and Youth Protection, and full-time Director of Vocations, and more. Together, the 78 parishes and 2 missions in our Diocese can encourage each other in our Faith. A letter from the Diocese with information should have arrived in the mail. If you haven't already pledged support, you have an opportunity to do that at Mass this weekend. Thank you for being a part of the wider community of the Diocese of Tulsa.
