GOSPEL: GOSPEL: St. Mark 1:7-11

This is what John the Baptist proclaimed: "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." It happened in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized in the Jordan by John. On coming up out of the water he saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit, like a dove, descending upon him. And a voice came from the heavens, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

BISHOP KONDERLA has issued a decree, The Normality of Hope: A Word of Encouragement for Participating in the Eucharist.

Here are a few paragraphs:

"...in God's providence...we have learned a great deal about how to live in the midst of this pandemic. We owe a great debt of gratitude to our medical community, our researchers, and essential workers in all circles of society, who have supported us and helped us understand what we now know about this virus and shielded us from the worst of its public effects.

Most importantly, we have learned how to safely gather to celebrate the Eucharist, the source and summit of the Christian life. The protocols we have put in place are proving effective and there are virtually no cases of viral transmission from Catholic churches gathering for Mass."

The full decree is available as a pdf file on the diocese website: dioceseoftulsa.org, look under "News" and then "COVID-19 Announcements and Information".
