GOSPEL: GOSPEL: St. Mark 1:14-20
After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: “This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel.”
As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen. Jesus said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men.” Then they abandoned their nets and followed him. He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him.

BISHOP KONDERLA has issued a decree, The Normality of Hope: A Word of Encouragement for Participating in the Eucharist. Here are a few paragraphs:
“...in God's providence...we have learned a great deal about how to live in the midst of this pandemic. We owe a great debt of gratitude to our medical community, our researchers, and essential workers in all circles of society, who have supported us and helped us understand what we now know about this virus and shielded us from the worst of its public effects.
Most importantly, we have learned how to safely gather to celebrate the Eucharist, the source and summit of the Christian life. The protocols we have put in place are proving effective and there are virtually no cases of viral transmission from Catholic churches gathering for Mass.”
The full decree is available as a pdf file on the diocese website: dioceseoftulsa.org, look under “News” and then “COVID-19 Announcements and Information”.
