GOSPEL: St. Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23
“When the Pharisees with some scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Jesus, they observed that some of his disciples ate their meals with unclean, that is, unwashed, hands. For the Pharisees and, in fact, all Jews, do not eat without carefully washing their hands, keeping the tradition of the elders. And on coming from the marketplace they do not eat without purifying themselves. And there are many other things that they have traditionally observed, the purification of cups and jugs and kettles and beds. So the Pharisees and scribes questioned him, “Why do your disciples not follow the tradition of the elders but instead eat a meal with unclean hands?” He responded, “Well did Isaiah prophesy about you hypocrites, as it is written:
*This people honors me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from me;
in vain do they worship me,
teaching as doctrines human precepts.*
You disregard God’s commandment but cling to human tradition.”
He summoned the crowd again and said to them, “Hear me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile.
“From within people, from their hearts, come evil thoughts, unchastity, theft, murder, adultery, greed, malice, deceit, licentiousness, envy, blasphemy, arrogance, folly. All these evils come from within and they defile.”

Interested in Becoming Catholic?
"You have made us for yourself, O Lord, and our hearts are restless until they rest in you."
(St. Augustine of Hippo)

At every moment of our lives, God draws near to us, calling us to seek him, to know him, and to love him. Our journey of faith begins when we respond to that call.

If your journey is leading you to inquire about the Catholic faith, the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) is the process through which you are given an opportunity to get a basic understanding of the teachings of the Catholic Church as well as experience the spiritual side of the faith. It is a time to ask questions and determine if the Catholic faith is right for you. Each person's faith journey is unique and there is never any pressure for you to become Catholic. RCIA is a period of reflection, prayer, instruction, discernment, and formation.

Come join us for our Open House and church tour on Tuesday, August 31, 7:00pm. We will be happy to answer your questions and introduce you to our home & family!

RCIA sessions for the Catholic Community of Bartlesville will be held this year on Tuesday evenings from 7- 9pm, beginning September 7 in Conference Room 2.

For more information, please email Kim Barbour, RCIA Coordinator at rcia@stjohn-bartlesville.org. or call her at (952) 270-4665.
